

➤ What is supported lodgings?

Supported lodgings is a form of semi-independent living within a family setting.

It will provide you with somewhere safe and secure to live.

Who is for?

It is for young people who are not yet ready to live on their own. You may be leaving care or private accommodation or in some cases you may come straight from your family.

How long will I stay in supported lodgings?

Placements last an average from 6 months - 18 months. However, this time is not fixed, it is based on need. When you feel ready to move on, we can help you.

What can I expect from supported lodgings?

- you will have your own room;
- you will have use of all communal rooms;
- you will have use of appliances i.e. washing machine;
- you will have a safe and secure place to live; and
- you will get support from the person or people you live with.

Who else will live in my supported lodgings placement?

This is different in each home. Some of our householders are single people and others are couples or families. There may be another young person alongside you.

The most important thing is that you will live in a safe, friendly home. You will be living in a home with at least one adult who has been approved by us. Everyone in the home who is over 16 years old will have had a DBS check.
